The Great Ends of the Church End #5 – The promotion of social righteousness

The fifth great end of the church is the promotion of social righteousness. This great end is beloved of Matthew 25 Christians, "I was hungry and you fed me, thirsty and you gave me drink..." This great end points back to the prophets, "Do justice..." and, "Let justice roll down like a river" (Micah 6:8 and Amos 5:24). It reminds us of James' wisdom, "...I will show you my faith by my deeds" (James 2:19).

Presbyterians love great end #5.

Faith Floods the Desert

Join people of faith across Southern Arizona on Good Friday for a Faith Floods the Desert Liturgical Action. On Good Friday, April 19th as Christians around the world remember the crucifixion of Jesus, we are painfully aware of the way in which our current border policies are leading to the ongoing "crucifixion" of migrants in our desert. Join us in a sacred journey into the desert to provide humanitarian aid on this most holy of days. We will meet at 7am on Good Friday at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church at 3809 E 3rd St, Tucson, AZ 85716 for a brief liturgy and press conference at 7am and then will head out to provide humanitarian aid along migrant trails. We hope that you will consider standing with us as we stand with those who are most directly impacted by our border policies and with those, like No More Death's volunteer Scott Warren, who are being criminally charged with humanitarian aid. We gather to say the deaths must end and the charges against humanitarian workers must be dropped.
