Join us for a 3-day conference in Agua Prieta, Sonora, with renowned leaders in immigration, hospitality, worship, preaching, and resistance. We will focus on:

- Understanding and analyzing governmental and gospel responses to the exodus
- Giving public witness of the border as a place of encounter and welcome
- Sharing best practices in hospitality
- Encouraging one another
- Equipping the church on both sides for ministry in a new context

Your $100 program fee includes:

- Six meals including dinner celebrating 35 years of Presbyterian Binational ministry
- Translation services
- Prayer walk along the border wall
- Visit with asylum seekers
- Worship at the border wall
- Optional Friday morning workshops
- Community art project
- Post-conference cross planting with the School Sisters of Notre Dame
- Activities for your children- art, music and games
